

STATE POLICE INVESTIGATE 3 ACCIDENTS

State police were called to investigate three auto accidents over the weekend.

Donna E. Mummert, 32, Hanover, suffered a broken blood vessel of the left leg when a car driven by her husband, Harold E. Mummert, 34, was struck from the rear in York Springs at 7:45 o'clock Sunday night. She was treated by Dr. Mark Redding in Hanover.

State police said Mr. Mummert's sedan had stopped along the Hanover-Carlisle Rd. in York Springs, at an intersection, when it was struck by a convertible operated by Barry Lee Guise, 16, York Springs, and owned by R. L. Pittenturf, York Springs. Damage was estimated at $100 to the sedan and $75 to the convertible.

Lawrence C. Sanders Jr., 18, York Springs, according to police, escaped injury Sunday morning at 3:30 o'clock when he fell asleep a half mile north of here on the Harrisburg Rd. and his car left the highway, struck a guard post and overturned. The 1956 auto was reported as demolished.

Two cars collided seven-tenths of a mile north of here on the Harrisburg Rd. at 3:05 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Police said Philip Marks, 28, Bradford, was attempting to enter the driveway at the Horse 'N' Buggy museum when his car was struck by an auto operated by Herbert C. Hutchinson, 53, Pittsford, N. Y. Damage was estimated at $100 to the Marks' car and $150 to the Hutchinson vehicle. No one was reported injured.

SIGNS PAPER AT OLD DESK

Miss Edna Eicholtz, in 30 years as a courthouse employee, has met numerous dignitaries but only once has she had an opportunity to sign her name at a desk used by George Washington.

The incident occurred July 10 when Miss Eicholtz, as deputy prothonotary, went to the home of former President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower in Cumberland Twp. to sign affidavits for their passports to Europe.

On July 9 Miss Eicholtz signed the affidavits for Barbara and David Eisenhower, grandchildren of General and Mrs. Eisenhower, and for Mrs. Mowery, an Eisenhower maid, when they came to the prothonotary's office. The next day, through arrangements made by General Robert Shulz, General Eisenhower's military aide, she went to the Eisenhower farm home to sign the affidavits for the Eisenhowers, Mr. Mowery, their butler, and Gen. Schulz.

On July 12 she prepared passport affidavits for other members of the group and Gen. Shulz took the completed applications to Washington to expedite the issuance of the passports for the trip.

When Schaak was brought before Justice Snyder, the charges were dropped on condition he pay the costs and $2 restitution.

Hold Little Hope For An Agreement On Disarmament

By DORIAN FALK
GENEVA (AP) — The 17-nation disarmament conference resumes today in an atmosphere notable for a lack of expressions of optimism that traditionally precede diplomatic talks in Geneva.

The second phase of negotiations for a disarmament treaty is expected to center on details and technical discussions of the rival U.S. and Soviet plans.

The first three-month phase of the conference made little headway. It was devoted mostly to lengthy speeches and explanations of policy. The only step forward was the adoption of a treaty preamble in general terms.

"BETTER CHANCE"

U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean sounded the only positive note as the delegates arrived over the weekend. He said there might be a better chance now than in the past for an agreement on a treaty to ban nuclear weapons tests, the four-year-old issue dealt with in a U.S.-British-Soviet sub-

Passport Tangle Quickly Solved

Like many an American tourist preparing to go abroad, former president Dwight D. Eisenhower ran into trouble over his passport.

He found he didn't have one. But the problem was quickly solved and Wednesday at noon it's off to Europe.

The passport was discovered missing last week when the former president and his wife were packing at their farm. Two photographs and the proper papers were rushed to a county office.

The Eisenhowers planned originally to sail for France at midnight Thursday on a French liner, but a crewman strike caused them to switch to the Queen Elizabeth and to change the day of departure.

Two of the Eisenhower grandchildren, David and Barbara Ann, will be in the Europe-bound group.

CHURCH'S 40TH ANNIVERSARY IS OBSERVED

The 40th anniversary of the founding of the Iron Springs Brethren in Christ Church was celebrated on Sunday with the two founders, the Rev. Albert H. Engle and Dr. C. N. Hostetter, as the principal speakers.

The two men, as students at Grantham College in 1922, conducted a series of evangelistic series in the Iron Springs community which led to establishment of a Sunday School and church. Dr. Hostetter later became president of Grantham College and the Rev. Mr. Engle is on the faculty at the college and is executive secretary of the Brethren in Christ Board of Home Missions and Extension.

At the Sunday School hour on Sunday, the school's first superintendent, Miss Lola Dixon, now of Saxton, Pa., opened the service. Other superintendents who are no longer living at Iron Springs include the Rev. John Minter, Dillsburg, and Leo Strausbaugh, Rouzerville. The Rev. Mr. Minter presented to the school early records from 1927-31 which he had in his possession.

GIVEN CITATION

The morning worship service was opened by the Rev. Leonard Falk, Souderton, Pa., a former pastor. The sermon was given by the Rev. Mr. Engle.

At the afternoon service, Bishop Charles B. Byers of the Allegheny Conference extended congratulations and commended the founders for "going out on faith to start a new church" and challenged other young men to do the same. The Rev. Mr. Engle, in behalf of the church board he serves, presented to Miss Dixon a citation "for faithful service" to six home mission fields in this state and one in Ohio during the last 40 years.

In the concluding message, Dr. Hostetter paid tribute to two former pastors, the Rev. Mr. Minter for his "faithfulness in the difficult years of establishing the church" and the Rev. Mr. Falk for "for sacrifice while building the church." Dr. Hostetter concluded the service with a challenge to "ever keep the Bible central in our worship, work, witnessing and stewardship."

Adams Schools To Get $18,006 Of Pa. Surplus

Adams County school districts will get $18,006 in the distribution of $3.4 million of the state's surplus funds, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg this morning.

The state Department of Public Instruction announced Sunday the county-by-county breakdown in the distribution of the $3.4 million but no breakdown by school districts within the county is yet available.

The extra money for state schools was realized as part of the $16.6 million surplus accumulated by the state during the fiscal year 1961-62. The 1962 General Assembly earmarked a part of the total surplus for the schools.

The list of sums allocated by counties shows Cumberland receives $51,800; Franklin, $38,197, and York, $95,436.

DR. BACHMAN TO PRESIDE AT YORK DINNER

Dr. Albert Bachman, head of the Romance Languages Department at Gettysburg College, will be master of ceremonies at a banquet to be held Tuesday night at the Hotel Yorktown, York, for 86 Europeans who are in the U.S. for an exchange visit under the York-Arles, France, "Twinning" program.

The banquet will follow a day in Gettysburg for the visitors during which they will meet former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Dr. and Mrs. Bachman are among the interpreters for the group, most of whom are from Arles and other cities in southern France. Six are from England, Scotland, Belgium and Luxembourg.

The program was started a number of years ago when officials of York and of Arles, France, began corresponding and the two cities started a "twin city" project of interest and friendship between the two, including exchange visits by citizens of the two cities.

COME HERE IN MORNING

The visitors arrived Saturday in York and were greeted by York Mayor John L. Snyder and other city officials. Saturday night the York County commissioners held a reception for the guests at the Hotel Yorktown. Congressman George A. Goodling was one of those welcoming the group Saturday night.

Sunday morning the visitors attended church and luncheon served by various church groups. Sunday afternoon the York Youth Symphony and York Catholic High School Choir presented a concert. The evening was spent as guests of York families. Today the Arlesians toured the courthouse, schools and business places in York.

TODAY'S RAINS WELCOMED BY AREA FARMERS

Welcome showers that began about 7 o'clock this morning continued into early afternoon but the noon forecast predicted clearing skies tonight and sunny and mild weather Tuesday.

Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon, today's rain had totaled only three-tenths of an inch at The Gettysburg Times weather station leaving the community still short of normal July rainfall.

July is the fourth consecutive month of dry weather. April, May and June had less than normal rainfall. June's total was more than an inch below normal and left the first half of the year short by 1.73 inches of the normal amount of rainfall. Rain and snow in the first three months of the year had built up a surplus that was wiped out two months ago by the dry weather in April and May.

4TH RAINY DAY

This was the fourth day with measurable rainfall this month and up to 1 p.m. today the month's total rainfall stood at 1.48 inches. Normal for the first half of July is a shade over two inches of rain. Saturday's drizzle added only three hundredths of an inch of rain to the month's total.

Farm crops have been hard hit by the dry weather. Pastures are short and hay crops have been far below normal. Fruitmen say the size of the peach and apple crops may be affected if substantial amounts of rain do not arrive soon.

Streams are low and some farm water supplies are giving out by the unseasonably early drought. Late summer often sees dry weather here but for the shortage of rain to begin the traditional month of showers has hit agriculture hard in this area as well as in other parts of the state.

5 American Servicemen Die In Bloody Weekend In South Viet Nam; 5 Others Missing

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Three air crashes in 24 hours in South Viet Nam's guerrilla-infested jungles today left 26 dead, including four American servicemen.

Five more Americans were missing in the air crashes, and another was killed in an ambush Saturday in one of the bloodiest weekends in recent months.

A two-engine troop-landed Vietnamese air force transport crashed near the Laos border north of Saigon today in the most serious of the air mishaps, killing 22 Vietnamese soldiers and a U.S. Air Force flight instructor. There were four survivors, all reported to be Vietnamese.

C47 CRASHES

The C47 transport caught fire and crashed on take off at Kon Tum Airport, 260 miles northeast of here.

Seven planes and six helicopters searched for the wreckage of a two-engine U.S. transport believed to have crashed Sunday against a mountain while on a flight from Saigon to Ban Me Thuot, 160 miles to the northeast. The C123 transport had a crew of four Americans aboard.

The search was hampered by heavy rain and mist over the foothills and mountains around Ban Me Thuot.

SEARCH CREWS OUT

Other search crews probed the mountainous jungle 280 miles northeast of Saigon where a U.S. Army H21 helicopter crashed in flames after being hit by guerrilla gunfire.

Ground parties found the charred bodies of two U.S. Army officers and an enlisted man. But an American enlisted man and two Vietnamese were still missing.

The only known survivor, a U.S. Army captain said to have been the pilot, was found walking through the jungle five miles from the crash. He was only (Continued On Page 3)

MARINE SAYS HE CHASED GIRL TO HER DEATH

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—A young Marine has admitted, police say, that he was chasing a 14-year-old girl when she ran from him through the darkness and plunged over a cliff to her death.

Dist. Atty. Stephan A. Teller said that Pvt. William Lewis of West Nanticoke Heights faces arraignment today on murder charges and on a charge of raping another teen-age girl.

The body of Jean Volunkonis of Plymouth was found Saturday by two boys who were hiking in the area. Her stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Busto, had reported her missing after she failed to return from a dance Friday night.

SIGNED STATEMENT
Police said Lewis signed a statement Sunday admitting his part in her death.

The police reconstructed the events like this:

Lewis and two other youths went to a vacant house in Plymouth Twp. Friday night and found Jean and four other girls there.

Lewis carried one of the girls upstairs and raped her. He returned and he and another boy—the third had left—started chasing the other girls. Lewis went after Jean, caught her near the cliff where they struggled until she bit him, broke away and ran toward the cliff.

SKULL FRACTURED
Her body, the skull fractured, was found at the foot of the 30-foot cliff. Police said she apparently crawled about 12 feet and then died.

They said they have not yet determined what the girls were doing in the vacant house and how the boys knew they were there.

Lewis and the other two youths were known to the five girls, they said. Lewis was a basketball star at West Nanticoke High School before he enlisted in the Marines two years ago.

Lawrence Renews Bloom Invitation

HARRISBURG (AP)—The battle of the balanced budget continued over the weekend. Gov. Lawrence renewed his invitation to Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom to inspect the budget books.

In a letter made public Saturday, Lawrence wrote Bloom:

"In view of your persistent efforts to discredit a balanced budget and the establishment of a surplus, I deem it urgent that you cooperate in resolving this matter in the mind of Pennsylvania's citizens."

The governor said: "Great harm can come from the false impression that you have left in the minds of many citizens. Moreover, the state's reputation as a highly desirable location for new and expanding industry could be placed in serious jeopardy."

HARRISBURG (AP)—The compromise bill on medical care for the aged would provide medical care for "many who do not need it," the president of the Pennsylvania Medical Society contends.

"As proposed, it does not go far toward helping the truly needy aged," Dr. Daniel H. Bee, Indiana, said Sunday in a statement. "It does not recognize the responsibility of the government to help these people."

1960 REQUEST
In September 1960, Dr. Kelsey received from the William S. Merrell Co. of Cincinnati a request for permission to market the sedative in the United States under the name Kepon.

"HOLD ON"

When all your tries in failure end . . . and peace eludes your frame of mind . . . hold on, hold on, and soon your heart . . . will make a warm stream from the frost . . . when dreams and plans fade with each dawning . . . and more problems loom in view . . . hold on, hold on, and soon your heart . . . will beat again with faith anew . . . when these things happen as they're bound to . . . and your hope is all but gone . . . tides will turn as sure as heaven . . . if you just hold on, hold on.

ASK CHANGE IN ARCHITECTURE

The Adams County Committee on Employment of the Handicapped today announced it has joined with Easter Seal societies and state employment services throughout the nation in promotion of architectural changes in existing and proposed new buildings to make access easier for crippled children and adults.

Officials of the county Employ the Handicapped committee said a two-year study by the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults and the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped has resulted in establishment of standards for construction which will make it easier for handicapped persons to enter and use buildings.

Because of such architectural features as long and high steps, etc., handicapped persons now find it impossible to enter many public and private buildings, the national group noted.

The new standards, to be available to architects for their consideration in designing new structures, are approved not only as designed to make use of the building available to the handicapped, but also to meet building, safety and fire regulations.

Copies of the standards are available at the Gettysburg office of the Pennsylvania State Employment Service, 39 West St., Gettysburg, or can be obtained by writing the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, 2023 W. Ogden Ave., Chicago, 12.

Dilworth Status

McCartney thus endorsed the recommendations of Richardson Dilworth, the Democratic candidate for governor, and Gov. Lawrence.

U.S. Rep. William W. Scranton, GOP candidate for governor, has rejected the idea on the grounds that civil service status would restrict the commissioner or the governor in his use of the force.

Goldberg expressed hope for a peaceful settlement of a dispute between missile manufacturers and two unions—the United Auto Workers and the Machinists—which threatens to end in a strike July 23. About 125,000 workers at five plants are involved.

PHILADELPHIA SCANDALS IN NEW GOP BOOK

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Republican state committee is distributing a booklet outlining alleged scandals in the Philadelphia administration of Richardson Dilworth.

The 56-page text is entitled "The Decline of Richardson Dilworth." Dilworth is the Democratic candidate for governor.

GOP State Chairman George I. Bloom said over the weekend that better than 18,000 copies were being distributed to the party's candidates, office holders and workers.

The booklet deals with alleged zoning and coin laundry scandals, alleged bossism and alleged corruption during Dilworth's term as mayor of Philadelphia.

It also includes the Frankford Elevated Railway case. Eli G. Travis, the contractor whose firm was hired to repair the city-owned railway, has been charged with bribing city officials and improper work in connection with the project.

The book includes many newspaper excerpts. Dilworth said he had no comment on the booklet.

"DOUBLE STANDARDS"

Only last week, a grand jury investigation was ordered to review the alleged scandals. The investigation was set for September by Common Pleas Judge Eugene Alessandrini, a Republican.

Last year, a Democrat on the Common Pleas bench, Judge Raymond Pace Alexander, denied a Republican request for a grand jury investigation.

The booklet describes Dilworth as a "man who clearly demonstrated that he has a double standard of political morality and a man of such extreme vanity that he cannot accept any criticism of himself, or anyone associated with him."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

COSMIC RAYS
KILL ANIMALS
FROM BALLOON

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (AP)—Two monkeys and four hamsters exposed to cosmic rays were reported found dead after their capsules were parachuted into dense bush country from a high-flying U.S. research balloon Sunday.

The report came from a helicopter crew that visited the site a few hours after the cluster of three capsules was released. There was no immediate word on the cause of the death of the animals.

The experiment was to test the effects of 50 per cent exposure to the radiation that man is expected to encounter in future journeys into space.

Flower beetles, which are extremely sensitive to cosmic radiation, also went in a separate capsule on the 1,800-mile ride at altitudes of up to 131,000 feet across the North American continent that began Saturday.

First reports from the wilderness area where the capsules fell did not mention the insects' fate. A third capsule carried instruments.

The capsules' release from the balloon was triggered over Candie Lake in northern Saskatchewan.

The U. S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration directed the research project. Two more launchings are planned this summer to provide basic information on radiation problems applicable to manned space flight.

RED ATTACHE IN CAR CRASH

GLEN COVE, N.Y. (AP)—Police say a Soviet employee side-swiped another auto with his car Sunday night and rushed off to the Soviet estate here, telling the other driver he didn't have time to wait for authorities.

Police traced the driver, identified as Igor Andreev, an employee of the Soviet secretariat at the United Nations, to the Soviet estate through his license plate number, which had been jotted down by the other driver involved — Anthony Nosen of Glen Head, N.Y.

At the estate, police said, Andreev told them he thought he had properly identified himself to the other driver and had rushed off because he was in a hurry.

Nosen told police that Andreev showed him a card indicating his Soviet affiliations when they got out to survey damage to their cars at the accident scene.

Nosen, his wife and two children were treated for minor injuries. A police spokesman said it is doubtful that any action will be taken.

Foreign nationals in this country on diplomatic visas are immune from prosecution.

Local Youth In Hanover Accident

Two Hanover youths were injured slightly in a two-car collision Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the intersection of Carlisle St. and the road to the radio station in Hanover.

Police said the cars were operated by Vincent Brenner, 19, Highland Ave., Gettysburg, and Carroll Granger, 19, Hanover. After the collision, Granger's vehicle knocked off a utility pole and came to rest 50 feet away, police said.

David Reichart, 19, Hanover, a passenger in the Granger car, was treated for a bruised elbow at Hanover Hospital. Granger was also treated for lacerations of the knees and a bruised forehead. Both were discharged after treatment.

Police estimated the damage to the Brenner car at $125 and to the Granger car at $1,000.

DECISIVE TEST IS AHEAD FOR MED CARE PLAN

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's Social Security health care plan for the aged faces a decisive test in Congress this week.

The measure is the major item on a schedule which promises a busy week in both Senate and House.

The Senate, which has debated the bitterly disputed health care issue for two weeks, is to vote Tuesday afternoon on whether to table and thus kill the president's plan.

SEE CLOSE VOTE

A revised version has been worked out to win support of five Republicans, but both sides expect the result to be extremely close. Sponsored by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., it is being offered as an amendment to a House-passed bill revising the public welfare laws. If the plan passes the Senate, it goes on to the House where its prospects are doubtful.

After disposing of the matter the Senate is expected to take up a money bill to provide funds for the Welfare and Labor departments.

A floor fight is likely to develop because of proposed Republican amendments to bar both impacted school and hospital construction grants to segregated institutions. The impacted school program covers districts crowded because of federal installations.

SOVIET UNITY
CHIEF DECEIT
OF THE USSR

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The "myth of Soviet unity" is one of the chief deceptions of the USSR, says Dr. Lev E. Dobriansky, chairman of the National Captive Nations Committee.

Dobriansky, in an interview prior to speaking at a Captive Nations rally in Pittsburgh Sunday, said there are 15 non-Russian "captive" nations with a population of 614 million persons within the USSR itself.

He said Russia is a giant with feet of clay that will crumble through truth.

Dobriansky is an associate professor of economics at Georgetown University. He was the originator of the Captive Nations Week resolution passed by Congress.

GOOD PARTNERSHIP

Gov. David Lawrence, speaking at the Captive Nations rally, said President Kennedy's call for an interdependent Europe and America is "the foundation for the greatest progressive partnership in the free world's history."

"It is a partnership in which all of us . . . have an abiding share," the governor said. "For the truth is that we are interdependent, that our destinies are locked together, that our interests are the same and our hopes for mankind identical."

Speaking of the countries that are not free, Lawrence said: "It is to these people that we turn our hearts and our hands today; it is to them that we offer our hope; it is for them that we offer our prayers and our pledge to our own country."

BOMB WAKES PRISONERS

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—A home-made bomb went off on a window sill at the Lancaster City Jail at 12:30 a.m. today, jolting seven prisoners awake.

Police said the bomb was made from a pipe and made a deafening noise. Only the window sill was damaged.

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Connecticut Democrats faced today the job of healing a serious breach in party unity after nominating Abraham A. Ribicoff for the U.S. Senate.

Ribicoff, who resigned as welfare secretary in the Kennedy Cabinet to return to Connecticut politics, was nominated at the rowdiest state convention in recent memory.

While party leaders, including State and National Chairman John M. Bailey pondered how to heal the wounds, Rep. Frank Kowalski, loser in

A very wise thinker has said that "from a worldly point of view there is no mistake so great as that of being always right."
The most successful people I have ever known have been those who have been most in doubt as to when they are right. I have never professed to be successful, but I can confess to the fact that I have known I have been wrong a great deal of the time.
And it has kept me human to embrace the right when it has found me and thrown its arms about me.Life is filled with forms of failure. We are successful in a measure only, as we are able to edge our way past three forms.
A few of these forms, including,
the one stated above, are as follows: To be blind to the fact that you might fail. (Most successful people fail time and time again.)
To refuse to be corrected. To take and to learn. To fail to get up when you are down. To be constantly studying the faults and mistakes of others. To harbor the idea that the world owes you a living. To accept service without giving it.To lose your money doesn't make you a failure. Neither does losing your reputation, for reputation is only what others think you are. That opinion can be changed overnight. But not to give the world a character is truly to fail.
For character is all that you are, all that you have worked for and suffered for, all that you have built, in secret and in the open, years and years of this and that,
that the crowd outside knows nothing of. Character, which is all that you are, both good and bad.Not to have character is to sneer before all the world that you are a failure.Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—Records, favorites and the attention of the track world all have changed since the last time a slender Boston University high jumper named John Thomas visited Stanford University.Two years ago the 6-foot-5 Negro was a magnet who drew thousands to watch him glide effortlessly over 7 feet as he practiced for the U.S. Olympic Trials.In those trials on July 1, 1960, the smiling Thomas lifted himself over the then-incredible height of times. Last July he bested Thomas again with a mighty leap could help him as it once helped Thomas. In his first series of

Yanks Pounce On Kansas City Pitching For 10 Homers While Indians Lose Pair To Orioles

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
[Maybe—just maybe, mind you—this time it's for real.]

The New York Yankees, who were supposed to run away and hide from the rest of the American League, have been in and out of first place on 10 separate occasions this season.

About half the times they were in, the perennial champions made mildly threatening gestures, and the experts proclaimed "This is it. Just like we said. Now they'll move."

10 YANKEE HOMERS

Each time, however, it proved to be a false start. The league rallied, or injury struck, or the Yankees suddenly started acting like any other ball club. The result has been one of the closest American League races in history.

Well, they're in again and making those threatening gestures—only this time they may not be such mild motions. Maybe, just maybe, this time it's for real.

The Yanks pounced on Kansas City's thin pitching for 26 hits, including 10 home runs, Sunday in sweeping a doubleheader from the A's, 8-6 in 10 innings and 11-3. The double victory gave them a lead of 2½ games—hardly commanding but the largest enjoyed by any AL leader this season.

INDIANS LOSE PAIR

The Los Angeles Angels regained second place when they engineered a doubleheader split, while Cleveland slipped back to third by losing a pair. The Angels beat Washington 5-1 in their first game, but lost 10-4 in the second. Cleveland went three games off the pace when it lost its third straight, 4-4 and 5-4 to Baltimore. Chicago beat Detroit 3-1 in a single game and Minnesota took Boston 5-3 in the first of a doubleheader. The second game was rained out.

Home runs accounted for 10 of the Yankees' 26 runs at Kansas City. Roger Maris hit his 22nd and 23rd in the first, Elston Howard his 9th and 10th in the second. Gino Cimoli's homer in the bottom of the eighth forced the opener into overtime, but Yogi Berra won it with his two-run homer in the 10th. Bill Skowron's two-run homer highlighted a three-run fourth inning that put New York ahead to stay in the second game.

SEWITTE HOMERS DECIDE

Jim Gentile's home runs decided each Baltimore game and knocked the Indians out of second. His 23rd of the season broke a 4-4 tie in the sixth inning of the first game and his 24th snapped a 5-5 deadlock in the ninth inning of the nightcap. Chuck Estrada limited Cleveland to six hits, including a two-run homer by Willie Kirkland, in winning the opener.

Eli Grba, who has a 6-0 career record against Washington, went the distance for the first time in 17 starts in pitching the Angels to their first game victory. Joe Koppe drove in three Los Angeles runs on a homer and a single. The Senators, however, punished six Angels pitchers with a 17-hit attack in the nightcap rout. Bob Schmidt drove in three runs and Ken Hamlin also stole three bases.

Luis Aparicio's double keyed a two-run White Sox rally in the eighth against Detroit. His sharp hit that caromed off third baseman Steve Boros drove in the run that broke a 3-3 tie and pushed the White Sox winning string to six. Rocky Colavito's 21st home run had tied it in the Tiger half of the inning.

Harmon Killebrew drove in four runs with a pair of doubles in Minnesota's victory over Boston. Frank Sullivan retired nine men in order in a three-inning relief appearance to save it.

CARRY BACK LOOKS LIKE "HORSE OF '62"

By JOHN CHANDLER

It's a bit premature to get serious about the question of 1962 "Horse of the Year" honors, but since Kelso has been getting his lumps and Carry Back is the principal culprit perhaps trainer Jack Price has a point.

Ever since Carry Back, "the people's horse," whipped Kelso in the $100,000 Metropolitan Handicap May 30 at Aqueduct, Price has been having sweet dreams. There was one slight interruption when a brash intruder named Beau Purple knocked both Kelso and Carry Back for a loop in the $100,000 Suburban Handicap July 4.

But Jack and his wife Katherine, in whose name Carry Back runs, are back in dreamland again today. Their horse ran one of his greatest races Saturday when he demolished the Monmouth Park 1½ mile track record in winning the $100,150 Monmouth Handicap by 3 lengths over Kelso.

Mighty Kelso, Horse of the Year in 1960 and again last season, appears to have had it—at least for the present. He ran sixth in the Metropolitan when Carry Back equalled the Aqueduct mile record. He was beaten 2½ lengths by Beau Purple in the Suburban, as Carry Back was fourth.

Carry Back was going away Saturday at the finish, when jockey Johnny Rotz wheeled him over the line in 2:00.25.

"In the winner's circle, Carry Back wasn't breathing hard enough to blow out a match," said the jubilant Price. "Now we'll go after the Brooklyn next Saturday at Aqueduct."

Carry Back ($90,000) collected $70,947, and he needs only $401,000 to surpass the great Citation and become the third leading money winning horse in the world. Citation retired with $1,085,760. C. B. has $1,085,360.

From the Far West there are handicap champ rumbles generated by Rex Ellsworth's Prove It, easy winner of the $162,100 Hollywood Park Gold Cup. Prove It, who now has won his last three stakes starts at Hollywood, finished the Gold Cup 1¼ miles with a rush, to whip Mrs. C. M. Ring's Windy Sands by 3¼ lengths in 2:00 flat.

The J. G. W. Stable's Ridan boosted his 3-year-old stock by taking the $102,550 Arlington classic by seven lengths. Ethel Hafschmidt drove in three runs and Ken Hamlin also stole three bases.

Only one game separates the first five teams in one of the hottest races in many years following Sunday afternoon's six ball games including one upset.

Cashtown threw first place into a three-way tie by pulling a stunning 12-11 upset win out of the fire over New Oxford on the winner's diamond. New Oxford, 11-4, drops into a tie with Fairfield and Littletown.

Guy Weikert pitched Fairfield to a 6-1 decision over Harney at Fairfield. Weikert gave up six scattered hits and struck out 10 batters for the win. Joe McCauslin lead the winners with a trio of hits including a triple. Lee Callender chipped in with a pair of safeties while Crouse paced the Harney attack with two hits.

Littletown added its eleventh victory with a 7-1 verdict over Taneytown on the Maryland diamond.

Gettysburg and Arendtsville each rolled up wins to remain in a deadlock and one game behind the front-runners. Gettysburg came from behind to defeat Bonnevill 5-4 at Bonnevill.

Gettysburg tallied three times in the first inning on Guise's lead-off double, singles by Little and Shields, a walk and a Bonnevill miscue. Clabaugh's double helped the host team score one run in the bottom of the third and then started things rolling by pushing Bonnevill into a 4-3 lead in the sixth. His single plus one-base blows of Sneeringer, D. Gebhart and Legore produced the three runs. A walk and singles by Bob Furney and Vance Johnston gave Gettysburg two game-winning runs in the top of the eighth. The win was Gettysburg's seventh straight.

Mummasburg scored three times in the bottom of the second inning and went on to down McSherrystown 4-2 on the winner's field. Hartman, E. White, Single and Hull paced the winners with a pair of hits each while T. Staub had a perfect four-for-four for the losers. Three of Staub's four hits fell for doubles.

NATION HAS NEW DEFICIT SETUP AHEAD

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Tempers and guesses—on the twin subjects of spending and budget deficits—flash on and off like the lights on a pinball machine.

This annual rumpus is getting routine for, as time marches on, there are fewer and fewer people left to recall wistfully those good old days when budgets used to be balanced every year.

The government has just finished another year in the red. It will almost certainly land in the red again this year, too. That's no surprise.

6 TIMES IN BLACK

In these past 32 years the government has wound up in the black—with revenue greater than expenses—only six times. And the end of deficit spending isn't in sight, despite President Kennedy's high hopes.

On June 30 the government closed out its 1962 fiscal year with expenses estimated at $88 billion and income at $81 billion—a $7 billion deficit.

This was the second biggest postwar deficit. The biggest was in fiscal 1959 when the government, under President Eisenhower, went in the red for $12.5 billion.

KENNEDY ESTIMATE

Last January Kennedy sent Congress his budget—his estimate of what it would cost to run the government another 12 months—for the fiscal year starting last July 1.

He figured spending at $92.5 billion but revenue at about $93 billion. This was hopeful. Too hopeful.

If it came true, it would put the government in the black for the first time since 1960 with revenue greater than spending by about $500 million. It sounded dreamy then, sounds more dreamy now, and for several reasons:

BUSINESS BREAK

1. This week, under an old authority granted by Congress, he gave business a $1.5 billion tax break which by itself, if his January estimates were correct, would put the country back in the red with a deficit of $1 billion.

The tax cut for business was in the form of more liberal allowance, than business has now, for charging off depreciation on its

2 Gunmen Stage Holdup; Steal Car

JENKINTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Two gunmen robbed the Industrial Valley Bank & Trust Co. of approximately $35,500 shortly before closing time Friday.

Police said one bandit held six people at gunpoint while the other took money from three tellers' cages.

Then the two fled 50 feet down a corridor, through the fashionable Benson Apartments building, where the office is located, and into a parking lot.

Police said the men pulled chauffeur Clinton Enley, 71, from the car he was parking and escaped in the stolen auto. The vehicle was found later.

machinery and equipment.

2. There's a rising screech from business and labor—from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the AFL-CIO—for income tax cuts. These cuts have been estimated at all the way from $3 billion to $10 billion.

BREAD-AND-BUTTER

3. A stumbling national economy which, translated into bread-and-butter terms, means: if business doesn't make more money this year, it will have to pay less tax on its profits, thus reducing government revenue.

The idea behind those tax cut proposals is that if people have to pay less in taxes, they'll have more to spend on things they want, and in this way fatten business profits, thus boosting the economy all around.

Kennedy is still trying to make up his mind on this one.

TRUMAN IN BLACK

After the war the country, under President Truman, wound up in the black three times. It was also in the black three times under Eisenhower. The big deficit of fiscal 1959 resulted from the 1958 recession.

But those six budget surplus years under Truman and Eisenhower were the only times since 1930 that the country has been in the black.

From fiscal 1920 through fiscal 1930 the nation was in the black. But then the depression set in and, after that, World War II.

That was the last time the country got out of the red until 1947 under Truman.

Some cooks find that adding a teaspoon of vinegar to the water in which eggs are being poached helps to keep the egg whites from spreading unduly. Another precaution against spreading is to use extremely fresh eggs!

"RAVING" BEAUTY. A young lovely writes: Freckles are my problem, not on my face but across my shoulders. They are dark, the size of a dime, and I would do anything to get rid of them. I never wear dresses that leave my shoulders bare. In summer I go stark, raving mad because it is practically impossible to wear cover-up clothes all the time.

The Answer: Actually, cover-up clothes are the best thing a girl with freckled shoulders can wear on a summer's day. And not necessarily to hide her freckles, but to keep the sun from darkening them.

Anyhow, what's so terrible about cover-ups? This is the season of the covered look in street and casual fashions. During relaxed hours, even flawless shoulders are wearing shifty pullovers and beach dresses.

Aside from clothing, the way to conceal freckles is with make-up. The trick is turned with an opaque, waterproof cream or cake foundation. Two shades are needed—one to match the color of your freckles, the other to match your skin tones. The darker shade is applied first; the lighter is used as a blender. Of course, in making applications, you must have a helper and a very adept one at that. Practice and patience are required to achieve a natural effect. In some instances, freckles can be "erased" by a dermatologist. If you are interested in the procedure and not in touch with a dermatologist, ask your family doctor for recommendations.

GIRL SCOUTS OPEN ROUNDUP AT BUTTON BAY

Buttons Bay, Vt. (AP) — Ladies generally don't brag when they reach their 50th birthdays but 10,000 Girl Scouts open a rousing 10-day female stag party Wednesday to commemorate the event.

The second International Girl Scout Roundup marks the golden anniversary of the year a lady named Juliette Low of Savannah, Ga., organized a group of girls to teach them such maidenly arts as camping, cow milking and reining runaway horses.

TO BE STATE PARK

Buttons Bay, a flat, 450-acre site, will be converted into a state park after the girls depart.

Girl Scout officials say it will be the largest mass movement of teen-aged girls in the country's history. Eleven special trains from all over the United States, 100 chartered buses and a hay wagon which will convey a troop from nearby Rutland, Vt., are included in the retinue.

Scouts 14 through 17 years of age will do much of the work but 1,700 adults will be on hand to supervise and lend assistance.

FOOD DONATED

Each patrol of eight girls will live adjacent to at least three other patrols from different parts of the country. Girls will rotate cooking over their own charcoal fires, getting supplies from the commissary and washing up.

Numerous food firms have donated tons of groceries, including you-know-what for pancakes, from the Vermont Maple Industry Council.

A village green has been set aside where costumed Girl Scouts from New England, New York and New Jersey will give demonstrations in such colonial arts as weaving, quilting, candle dipping, tin painting, and an old Indian squaw scout trick, making birch bark canoes.

MASS CAMPFIRES

A mass campfire July 20 features a pageant of scouting while a second July 24 will have folk dancing and singing, awarding of 12 college scholarships and a two-ton birthday cake.

Girl Guides, the equivalent elsewhere of the Girl Scouts, are participating too—150 of them coming from as far as Japan and Nigeria.

It's a far cry from March 12, 1912, when Juliette Low had a group of girls—the first scouts—over to her house to train them in camping, Morse code, cow milking and how to catch a runaway horse.

Now there are 3½ million Girl Scouts and runaway horses are as rare as a Boy Scout in Buttons Bay.

NEW YORK (AP) — Pierre Salinger, President Kennedy's press secretary, returned today from Brazil. He had talks with officials of the Brazilian government about the President's postponement of a visit to that country until Nov. 12.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Bobby Jordan, 39, one of the movie original "Dead End Kids," has been arrested on a charge of drunken driving.

EXECUTIVE KILLED

AUDUBON, N.J. (AP) — Arthur E. Kittredge, 59, president of the American Water Softener Co., Philadelphia, was killed Sunday at his home here when his car slipped off a jack while he was working underneath it.

Before the American Bowling Congress approved the plastic coated bowling pin in 1954, a total of 900,000 games were rolled to test the pins.

Letters To The Editor

Mr. Hugh McIlhenny
The Gettysburg Times
Carlisle Street
Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Mr. McIlhenny:

On behalf of the local chapter of the American Field Service I send to you, your staff, and your photographer, our sincere thanks for the publicity and picture which you gave to our A.F.S. bus project through the media of The Gettysburg Times.

It is through your willingness and good services rendered to us that we are able to have the community know about this international good will project and we have been fortunate to secure community cooperation. I feel that The Gettysburg Times renders an invaluable service to our school.

Thank you again,
Sincerely,
(Miss) N. Louise Ramer
Chapter President

Dear Sir:

There are many Americans who deplore some of the methods of the John Birch Society, but at the same time, like General Eisenhower, are seriously concerned over the program of the Kennedy administration to greatly increase presidential powers and centralization of government. Too many government controls are dangerous for they lead to loss of individual freedom, which is our most precious heritage. President Kennedy's own inaugural statement should be applied and given meaning to: "Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country."

America has remained the last firm foothold of freedom in the world and "government of the people, by the people, and for the people" must not perish from our nation!

Gentlemen:

Once again many thanks for your generous support of our most recent project—the horse show. This was a new venture for us girls but with your help we feel it was a resounding success. Special thanks for the ad in the program and for the many front page articles.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Robert A. Codori,

To the Editor:

America has produced many noble sons whose brilliant achievements have been extolled down through the years, and it is my humble opinion we have with us a living counterpart of that nobleness in the person of Dwight D. Eisenhower.

His campaigns and his years as President found him a man equipped with a keen sense of knowledge and ever sensitive to world events. He always expressed himself clearly and effectively, his hand-waving pictured his personality, showing him to be a rare person, blessed with a natural gift of greeting people.

When embarking on his second campaign, Eisenhower was faced with the danger of a former illness and the fulfilling of a promise to bring to a peaceful conclusion the Korean conflict, which action would require a superior order of stamina and mental ability. President Eisenhower sought peace not by just battles and endless negotiations but through the spirit and true principles of peace.

His genial qualities and unwavering ability in guiding his country through eight years of a peaceful administration have left a lasting impression upon the people of America which is shown by the great enthusiasm with which he is still greeted wherever he goes. In the estimation of future generations, Eisenhower, general and President, will be

KENNEDY BACK IN D.C. TODAY FOR REPORTS

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — President Kennedy returns to Washington today after his second Cape Cod summer weekend of rest and relaxation on the sparkling blue waters of Nantucket Sound.

The President has no public appointments for his first day back from the weekend, but he is expected to get a first-hand report from his press secretary, Pierre Salinger, due in from Brazil.

A scheduled presidential visit to Brazil was put off last week because of the political situation there. The announcement of the delay came as Salinger was in Brazil.

TAKES YACHT TRIP

The President varied his weekend program of boating, swimming and water sports in the vicinity of the summer White House Sunday.

He took off aboard the No. 2 presidential yacht, Patrick J., named for his paternal grandfather — for a run of 20-odd miles across Nantucket Sound to Martha's Vineyard, where the boat put in at Edgartown Harbor, mecca of coastal yachtsmen.

The presidential yacht stayed only a few moments at a pier near the Edgartown Yacht Club, then put out to sea again.

The President returned to his summer White House in late afternoon after nearly six hours on the water.

GRAHAM OPENS CAL. CRUSADE SUNDAY NIGHT

FRESNO Calif. (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham opened his central California crusade before 25,000 Sunday night by calling for the recovery of what he called lost frontiers.

His eight-day crusade here will be Graham's only scheduled appearance in the state this year. Graham listed four lost frontiers he said need recovering:

MORAL LAW UNCHANGED

"Moral law is unalterable and unchangeable. We have an idea that God has lowered his standards to meet our present-day conditions.

"I PROMISE YOU"

"Communism is challenging Christianity to outlive it. Communism itself does not work as is seen in Cuba and China. Communism thrives only on the supposition that other ideologies have not worked. We must not simply outpromise the Communists, we must outpassion and outeducate them."

BROADEN SEARCH

HONESDALE, Pa. (AP) — State police reported today they have broadened the search for Robert Meier, 19, Wilkes-Barre, who fled Fairview State Hospital for the criminally insane on Saturday while assigned to clean up the grounds. Meier was to have been tried in Luzerne County on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor when adjudged insane. He had been a trustee at the hospital for some time.

considered and thought upon as one of America's greatest.

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

TINY ATOMICS
How Big Is A Modern Battlefield?
When Are Targets Tactical? Strategic?

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

ARMY RETURNEES from Europe are talking about the flow of new equipment of America's Seventh Army in Germany.

Although the Russians completely modernized and re-equipped their 26 divisions now stationed within four hours of the West German border, the American forces have continued with substantially the same basic weapons familiar to most participants in World War II and Korea.

But now the old familiar Garand rifle is being replaced with one giving more punch per pound of its weight. Recoilless light artillery, seldom seen in Europe in 1945, is now common in sundry sizes and is seen frequently on various mounts.

The light and medium artillery, 105 and 155 mm howitzers of World War II are still in vogue. For most, their mobility has been greatly increased. The same is particularly true of the heavy artillery of World War II, though the actual gun tubes and breech mechanism of the 8-inch howitzers and 155 mm "Long Toms" are substantially the same as of 1942.

THE BIG CHANGE in artillery is in the ammunition for these same tubes. In addition to the conventional TNT bursting charges for the high explosive shells of World War II new projectiles with comparatively tiny nuclear bursting charges can be fired.

The "fall out" from such bursting charges is said to be "clean," but concussion destruction is over a wide but controlled area. In other words, one four-gun battery firing four nuclear rounds perhaps could be counted upon to neutralize the same target area that was once achieved by a hundred of the same tubes rapidly firing a creeping barrage of a thousand or more conventional rounds.

These figures are illustrative, of course, and are merely suggestive of the capability increases resulting from changes in nature of ammunition for the old, familiar artillery tubes.

The 240 mm (10 inch), of course, is strictly a post war gun for the Army and designed primarily for nuclear projectiles. It is, however, extremely slow and awkward at best. One hears less and less about it now that atomic bursting charges have been made practical for the lighter, more nimble and faster moving field guns.

THE ARMY, at home and from abroad, is also talking missiles almost as much as is the Air Force.

The Davy Crockett is a souped-up, glorified bazooka that launches a self-propelled projectile capable of a nuclear war head. Recent press reports hold that it is now in the hands of the armored cavalry regiments assigned to patrol the American sector of the West German frontier.

Other longer range and less mobile missile weapons for America's Seventh Army include the Nike Hercules, for knocking down enemy aircraft against medium range and distant ground targets, the American Army's Honest John, Corporal, and Redstone missiles are available.

They, too, are atomic, if so loaded, but designed to have effect only in the immediate area of the target and are sufficiently accurate that neither civilian centers nor our own or friendly troops will be endangered by the after effects of the burst.

WHAT DOES all this add up to? It clearly indicates that the Defense Department, presumably with the approval of the State Department and the White House, no longer considers strictly battlefield use of nuclear weapons a controversial matter. At the same time our policy for strategic targets (far distant cities with intercontinental missiles) is one of no shoot until Russia does.

But the Redstone has a range of 200 miles. It will be replaced by the Pershing, which has a greater range. Is it not time for someone to ask how big is a battlefield? When is a bursting charge tactical and when is it strategic?

SHOULD A HOSTILE GENERAL set up his own launching pad in the market square of a major city and begin knocking out our artillery batteries and killing our cannoners and infantrymen on the embattled line our general's decision to burn out the hostile pad with one or more of our Redstones clearly would be a tactical decision.

But if that hostile general had not evacuated all civilians from the city before he installed his missile pad those who perished from America's counter missile would never have the satisfaction of knowing whether they died from tactical or strategic considerations.

Knowing the doubts and problems confronting an American commander in such a situation, a crafty and ruthless Russian general might well select just such a battlefield missile site 50 miles behind his own front lines and forbid departure of civilians. His thought would be that his missile site would be secure from retaliation so long as all the civilians remained in the city.

It is easy for us to say we will not do it until they do it first, but that raises the billion dollar question. Can our Seventh Army in Germany hold its sector without recourse to such weapons?

There are many questions to answer incident to partial and strictly battlefield use of atomics. They should be answered now.

DAMAGE SUITS ARE FILED BY GOVERNMENT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The federal government has filed three more damage suits against electrical companies convicted in 1960 of conspiracy to violate the anti-trust laws.

Named as defendants in all three suits were General Electric Co., Schenectady, N.Y.; Westinghouse Electric Corp., Pittsburgh; and I-T-E Circuit Breaker Co., Philadelphia. One suit also named five others.

The civil suits, filed Friday in U.S. District Court, did not specify the amounts of damages sought. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said in Washington that they will be amended later to add the amounts.

ANTITRUST ACTION

In February 1961, after criminal anti-trust actions, 29 firms were fined nearly $2 million. Seven executives were sentenced to 30 days in jail.

The suits brought to 11 the number filed by the government against the companies. Like the eight previous, the three contended that the companies conspired to fix prices for electrical equipment.

Also named as defendants in one of the suits were Federal Pacific Electric Co., Newark, N.J.; Joslyn Manufacturing and Supply Co., Chicago; H. K. Porter Co., Portland, Ore.; and Southern States Equipment Corp., Hampton, Ga.

The suit was filed on behalf of the government and the Tennessee Valley Authority and involved power switching equipment.

The second suit involved isolated phase buses and named as a defendant H. K. Porter Co., as well as GE, I-T-E and Westinghouse.

LITTLE RELIEF FOR DROUGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The drought continued in Pennsylvania today and the Weather Bureau predicted only scattered, light showers for the next five days in most sections of the Keystone State.

The showers are expected to provide "very little relief" from the dry spell that has burned pastures brown and cut hay crops severely.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture last Friday listed 22 counties as disaster areas, making the farmers there eligible to use pastures and hay fields that had been set aside under federal crop control programs.

After today's scattered showers, rain is expected to total about ½ to ¾ inches, mostly Thursday through Saturday.

The Weather Bureau said no soaking rain was yet in sight.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Vatican officials investigated today a bomb explosion in St. Peter's Basilica but said they attach no political significance to the blast. They said it appeared the work of someone mentally deranged.

The tiny time bomb went off Saturday night after the Basilica had closed. Damage was slight and no one was injured.

PARIS (AP) — The wage strike which tied up the ocean liner France at Le Havre has been settled and the huge ship will sail for New York Tuesday, the French Line announced today.

The French Line took the France out of service Saturday.

CEDAR BROOK, N.J. (AP) — John M. DeMichael III, 8, of Morton, Pa., drowned in a sample swimming pool Sunday while his father — just a few yards away — talked with the dealer about buying one.

Hodges Sidelined By Kidney Stones

NEW YORK (AP) — Gil Hodges, 33-year-old first baseman of the New York Mets, will be out of the line-up for at least a month while he recovers from an operation for kidney stones, club officials said today.

The former Dodger veteran, who has hit 370 home runs, was stricken Saturday while attending a dinner. He was operated on Sunday.

The club has applied to put Hodges on the disabled list.

MRS. TALBOTT DIES SUNDAY IN 12-STORY FALL

NEW YORK (AP) — Margaret Talbott, socialite widow of Harold E. Talbott, secretary of the Air Force in the Eisenhower administration, plunged 12 stories to her death Sunday from a bedroom window of her Manhattan apartment.

Mrs. Talbott, 62, left five notes, police said. Four were addressed to servants. The fifth, apparently to her family, told of her continuing depression over the death of her husband five years ago.

Talbott, 63, died March 2, 1957, in Palm Beach, Fla., of a cerebral hemorrhage. He served as Air Force secretary under President Dwight D. Eisenhower from 1953 to 1955, when he resigned following a Senate probe into his private business affairs.

Mrs. Talbott's body, clad in negligee and a house coat, was found in a rear courtyard shortly after dawn. A maid in an adjoining building had heard the impact and called police.

Mrs. Talbott, a member of one of Philadelphia's oldest families, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Thayer. Her father, an economist, had been vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

CRAMPTON WINS FIVE UNDER PAR

DETROIT (AP) — Bruce Crampton—golf's iron man—won't be taking his week's vacation as planned.

Instead, the 26-year-old Australian will have to keep working because he was too good in the Motor City Open. Crampton will tee off Thursday in the big PGA tournament outside Philadelphia.

The PGA will be the 29th straight week of the tournament trail for Crampton — a grueling schedule none of the other touring pros has had the stamina to meet. "I was looking forward to a week off," said Crampton, who needed his 17-under-par victory in the Motor City to be eligible for the PGA.

Crampton broke a three-way tie with a 5-under-par 33-33-66 Sunday for the $5,300 first prize in the $35,000 Motor City. He put together rounds of 66-65-70-66 for his 267 total at par 36-35-71 Knollwood Country Club and had only one bogey in 72 holes.

"You keep your toe up and your head down," says Lou Groza, veteran placekicker of the Cleveland Browns. "That's how you get the ball up in the air."

EAST U.S. MAY SEE PREDAWN SHOW TUESDAY

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The eastern United States may receive a brilliant predawn show Wednesday when the space agency attempts to inflate a giant space sphere nearly 1,000 miles above the Atlantic Ocean.

Officials hope those up early enough to witness the inflation will have better viewing than on a similar launching last Jan. 15, when one of the big spheres ripped to shreds two seconds after it expanded to its full 135-foot diameter.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said that Wednesday is the earliest possible launch date. The attempt will be made between 4 and 6 a.m. (EST). The rays of the rising sun will reflect off the aluminum-coated ball and it should appear as a bright star moving across the southern sky.

Purpose of the experiment is to test techniques for launching an advanced Echo communications satellite later this year.

The Thor booster is to free the balloon—dubbed Big Shot—at an altitude of 230 miles. The ball, folded neatly in a canister on launching, is to inflate and drift to an altitude of 950 miles before plummeting back to burn up in the earth's atmosphere some 600 miles down range and 20 minutes after launching.

Fire Wrecks Second B And O Terminal

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — Two freight terminals of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad have been wrecked by fire within eight days.

Yesterday, roaring flames destroyed the 1½-story frame building in this Delaware County city. Firemen fought the blaze for nearly three hours before bringing it under control.

No one was hurt. There was no estimate of the damage. The building had recently been vacated.

On July 7 a fire wrecked the B&O terminal in Philadelphia, a 76-year-old landmark. It too, had been vacant.

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Cathryn Green, 13, of Pottsville drowned in a community pool Friday. Authorities said other swimmers discovered her body at the bottom of the pool.

GIBSONIA, Pa. (AP) — Edward Smith, 58, of Maple Heights, Ohio, was killed Friday when the truck he was driving hit the rear of another truck on the Pennsylvania Turnpike one mile west of the Perry Highway Interchange, state police reported.
